

“Spudescapades”

December 2021/January 2022

Hi everyone and welcome to my 2nd instalment of my “Spudescapades”

Well, I have been a busy boy again as I went to another show in December, I didn't win Best in Show this time but I did get the second certificate I needed to go towards my first title and I met some of mummy's cat show friends who hadn't met me before and one of them liked me so much that she gave me a special award

I also went on another photo shoot with Dream and Dylan, this one wasn't through my agents (yes, I have my own agent! Well, they deal with lots of us but it sounds good doesn't it !) but from a Facebook post that a friend of mummy's told her about so mummy sent photos off and they chose me and Dream and Dylan. I loved wandering about the HUGE studio exploring! We had to advertise cat beds and another product that I can't tell you about yet as it is isn't being launched until February but I might be able to next time. The photographer was lovely and she got a fabulous shot of me for the other product, I can't wait until I will be able to show you 😊

Then, of course, it was Christmas and I got LOTS of presents, including the toys I modelled for the Aldi catalogue and also a fabulous Christmas tree scratch post, I LIKED that!

Earlier this month I went to another cat show and I won ALL my classes, including Handsomest Male AND I won my THIRD certificate which means I now have a posh title! I am now officially MC (Master Cat) Hercule Purrot!! Hercule Purrot is my posh show name, mummy picked it, isn't she clever! The next level up is called Grand Master Cat and I will be going after my first certificate for that in February, I will let you know how I get on!

That's it for this instalment but as always if anyone wants to keep up with me I can be found on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/Spud-the-cat-with-a-tash-102068554670424> and on Instagram at <https://www.instagram.com/spudthetashcat/>
