

“Spudescapades

October 2022/November 2022

Here we are with “Spudescapade” number 7 and the last one for 2022

I hope everyone is well and enjoyed the Christmas Fair and thank you to everyone who bought off mummy’s stall that Auntie Shirley ran for us. I am SO sorry I couldn’t be there but I was booked into a cat show with mummy and Cookie and my sisters, well, mummy wasn’t booked in, she wouldn’t win anything, but you know what I mean. I do hope you enjoyed my Spudcasts that Auntie Shirley played, I had fun doing them over the last few years and I still do the odd one on my Facebook page if you want to follow me.

We missed being at the Fair but we had a nice day at the show – I did REALLY well, won all my classes except one, I also won Best Non Pedigree then beat a lovely Bengal for Overall Best Household Pet so it was a fab finish for my last show of the year! Even though I didn’t win my Olympian class I DID get one for my Overall Best in Show so I now have two! Just another 3 to go! I won food and treats and toys for me and mummy was happy cos I won Toblerone for her!

I haven’t had any more photo shoots but I have made a few public appearances – at the Happy Cats Autumn Fair in Blackburn and the Sunbird Autumn Fair in Darwen. I enjoyed my meet and greets and, because I agreed to go, mummy was allowed to have a stall at both so she was able to raise more money for A Purrfect Friend and the other 2 cat charities we support so that was good 😊. I also wore my special Halloween bandana and had a Halloween blanket for the Sunbird fair, how smart was!! I am making my last public appearance of the year at the Sunbird Christmas Fair in Darwen on the 10th December so please come along if you can – mummy has a stall and so does A Purrfect Friend, and I will have my special Christmas bandana on and will be sitting on my special Christmas blanket to get into the spirit of it. It’s open from 11 am to 4 pm. I will be wearing my special Christmas bandana!

I hope that you all have a happy, safe and loving Christmas and New Year and I hope to see you again in 2023, until then, as always, you can follow me on
