February 2023/March 2023

I have had a busy couple of months. In February I went to 2 shows in one, I was in HUGE Olympian classes – 10 and 12! I didn't win either of them but I did get placed 4th and 5th which was good and mummy was very proud of me! I also won every other class I was in so had a good day and was very chilled out as you can see.

I did my first meet and greet of 2023 at A Purrfect Friend's Spring Fair on Saturday 4th March. It was great fun again and I met lots of people including the Mayor of Penwortham! How good was that! Mummy had our new purrchandise out for the first time and we took £100 on the stall! I loved being in my new red pen and I wore one of my new bandanas which is red too so it matched. I met lots of people as well as the Mayor and really enjoyed my afternoon. Anyone local please make a note of the next one and come and meet me.

Mummy got me some new bandanas, you can see one of them in the fair photo above but I loved this one for St David's Day too! Oh I I got a new bow tie as well, how posh do I look! I DO like my bandanas and ties and I am building up quite a collection!

Well that's it for now, I haven't had any photo shoots yet this year though my friend Angel has done one so mummy was able to hand over a donation from her fee 😊. By the time the next newsletter is due I should have been to a few more shows so will have more - hopefully good - show news for you.

Lovely to meet all of you who came to the fair and hope to see more of you later in the year. A date for your diary – mummy is running an animal charity fair in May at Hoghton Village Hall. It is on the 20th from 10.30 to 3.00 and A Purrfect Friend will be there – as well as me of course!
