

“Spudescapades” number 22

April/May 2025

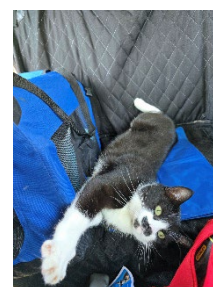

Number 22, 2 little ducks in bingo “language” – sounds yummy! I am, of course, on the packaging for the HiLife duck freeze dried treats (as well as the chicken ones) so that is actually very appropriate.

Meet and greets. So far I have had 2 meet and greets in April and had a fab time at both the Happy Cats Fair and our Animal Charity Fair, lots of people came to met me and we raised lots of money too. My next appearance now might not be until the APF fair in September which is actually on my birthday! If you live near Northwich and would like to meet me, you can come and see me at a cat show on July 19th at the Weaverham Community Centre.

Modelling- Wow have I been busy recently! I did an afternoon shoot for Jollyes the Pet People and so far they have done FIVE little adverts on Facebook and Instagram featuring me. Then I did 2 days filming for another new tv series for next year and I have also been called back in June to shoot another scene! This was my most exacting script yet but I am proud to say so far I have totally smashed it. Even mummy said so! I star alongside a very well known actress in it too!

Fundraising - Our 2025 fundraising is now over £500 per charity so I am hoping we can keep the momentum going and get close to, if not beat, last year's totals. The Animal Charity Fair raised around £3000 spread across everyone and our own portion of that was pretty good. We also now have a special table cover with me on, isn't it good! We are now down to the last 25 copies of my book so we have nearly sold out which is good. In exciting news, the initial sample of my soft toy is on its way to us so we are hoping we may have the toys available later in the year!
